Town council to take over road gritting?

By Philip Evans

TOWN councillors will tonight (Wednesday) discuss the possibility of taking over responsibility of gritting side roads.

With two heavy snowfalls already this winter, there has been widescale condemnation in the town of the failure of local authorities to make the streets and pavements safe in inclement weather.

Dorset County Council are responsible for gritting the main road through the town, but not the pavements or secondary roads such as the steep Woodmead Road, Queens Walk and Hill Road.

The town council have purchased additional grit boxes placed in strategic positions and their outside staff have been used to grit some of the more dangerous areas.

Particular concern was expressed that the pavements in Broad Street were left in a treacherous condition for several days after the last heavy snowfall.

There were a number of minor incidents in the town caused by the icy roads, including a car skidding into a shop window at the top of town.

A number of pedestrians sustained minor injuries when they slipped over on the ice.

Your chance to help shape the new youth club

THE people of Lyme Regis are being given the opportunity this weekend to shape the future of the town's new youth club.

An invitation has been extended to all residents to visit the former Club For Young People in Church Street on Saturday (9 am to 6 pm) to see the building, put forward ideas for the future running of the club and to come up with a new name.

Project leader Fran Williams said: "This is the first time the public have had the chance to look inside the club since 2006 and we hope as many as possible will take advantage of the opportunity."

RACHAEL Kershaw, 37, will be helping Bridport people kick-start their New Year goals this month.

Having been a Slimming World success story herself, Rachael took over the group she attended and now runs a weekly evening and morning session in the town.

Rachael has been running her Tuesday night group for three years now and the Wednesday morning group has been going for a year.

Rachael's day job is also related to healthy eating, working as a Finance Manager for Local Food Links.

As an added boost to her healthy lifestyle Rachael is also a key player for Bridport's Auto-bitz Netball team who are currently on course to claim their first division one title.

Rachael lives in Bridport with her husband Mark, 10-year-old daughter Ella and seven-year-old son Archie.

■ WHAT made you decide to take on a Slimming World group?

I put on weight with both my pregnancies and I had breast cancer in 2005 and my weight ballooned during my treatment. I joined Slimming World and about three months later the consultant moved away and so the group was on relief. Come October I'd lost about four stone and I was asked about becoming a consultant. At first I thought I couldn't do it but then I thought, actually, it's made such a difference to my life, I'd love to be part of that for other people's lives. I've never really looked at it as a job because I've got my job and this is just something I love doing.

■ WHAT is the best part about being a group leader?

I love watching people change, not just physically, but in the way they talk, the way they hold themselves, the way they walk, absolutely everything changes about them. Just seeing the difference it makes to people's lives.

■ LOSING weight is a New Year's resolution for many people, is January a good month to start?

I think it's a psychological thing, people tend to say let's get Christmas out the way and then have a new year, new start. January will be really nice because there will be people who won't have been members before who want to come and there will be people who may have been members before who never quite achieved what they wanted to. I would say to those people, make this the year you achieve your goals.

■ HOW does Slimming World differ from other diets?

It's sensible eating. There are lots of foods that you can eat freely so you don't have to keep your scales and measuring jugs out for everything. It is a good balanced diet; there isn't anything that you can't have, it's just moderation of the naughty things. For me when I wanted to lose weight I very much wanted to be able to cook family meals that everybody could eat and enjoy.

■ ARE Slimming World groups a female dominated environment?

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

No, I've got three couples that come, I've got a whole family that come, it's absolutely not just women. The men I think probably on the first time they walk in find it intimidating but the women all look after them.

■ WHAT are your top three tips for losing weight?

Obviously come to Slimming World would be my first. Secondly I'd say the most important thing is not just coming to group, it's staying to group because during group you get ideas and support. People want to know how you're doing. Really it's just about giving it the time and commitment that it deserves really. If it's important enough for you to lose weight then set aside that time to really focus on it.

■ WHAT are your goals for 2011?

With regards to my group I just want to keep getting people coming in and being positive about their weight loss and keeping their weight off. Personally, last year was a really busy year. In October I got signed off from the breast clinic because I made my five years, which was really fantastic. Ever since then I've just made sure I have time for me, time for my husband and time for me and the family. Just trying to get a good balance between work life and home life really.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

I'd quite like Simon Cowell because I'd like to know if he is as rude in real life. I'd have Peter Kay because he is hilarious, although he might not like a Slimming World meal. He does some quite interesting jokes about Slimming World on his tours. My third would be someone like Daley Thompson because I always loved the athletics growing up, I used to watch the Olympics and I always thought he was great.

Youth club open day

■ PUBLIC URGED TO GIVE SUPPORT

LYME Regis Development Trust has issued a reminder to local residents that an open day is being staged at the former club for young people this coming Saturday (9am to 6pm).

As well as helping to choose a name for the new club, the open day provides the first public opportunity to look inside the Church Street premises since 2006.

There will be a programme of activities for young people; top of the list being a 32ft bungee run in the big hall between 12 noon and 4pm suitable for all ages.

Volunteers from the InSPARation Cafe will be serving refreshments all day, starting with bacon butties from 9 am to noon and then lunch from noon to 3 pm, followed by tea until tea until 6pm.

There will be information stands and cake stalls, fundraising activities as well as a workshop led by art students from The Woodroffe School.

Visitors will be able to meet the pioneers, sign up as a friend, offer their skills and expertise and add their ideas to the wish list

A lot of work has gone into laying the foundations for the new centre. Young people, volunteers, and the community at large have joined the Woodroffe School, Dorset Youth Service and the Development Trust to make this a reality.

Share ideas

Said project leader Fran Williams: "We want young people and the rest of the Lyme community and its neighbouring towns and villages to come along and to share ideas for developing this centre as an exciting place full of opportunity, somewhere that everybody will want to use."

"There is still a long way to go before we open for business but we are on the way."

"The sort of things we need to know: do you want the hall to stay as a big space or divide it up? The stage to remain? Do you want a rehearsal space and music studio? Accommodation? If you want workshops, what sort? Do you want to see live performance, indoor skate events, and discos and have a café? Do you want it to be open in the holidays, and how can we bring in the funds to pay for everything?"

"We look forward to seeing you on Saturday."

◆ VOLUNTEERS from the InSPARation cafe who will be helping out at the open day at the former club for young people on Saturday

THE fundraising for the new youth club in Lyme Regis continues at great pace.

The latest event to provide a financial boost for the former club for young people in Church Street was a darts evening at the Nags Head, hosted by landlords Rob and Debbie Hamon.

The open darts tournament, organised by Terry Prowse and John Bowditch in memory of former Darts League secretary Dave Smith, raised £350 which was handed over by Mr Bowditch to fundraising chairman Terry O'Grady (pictured above).

Mr O'Grady thanked all the darts players who supported the event, the organisers and Mr and Mrs Hamon.

Also pictured are Mike Higgs, Rikey Austin and Stu Carver.

Brownies support for new youth club

UPLYME BROWNIES raised £40.50 from the annual Uplyme Church Christmas Bazaar.

Every Brownie made a Christmas decoration to sell at the bazaar, and another one to take home. After a "pow-wow", the Brownies decided that they would like to give the money raised to the new Lyme Regis Youth Club as this will be of benefit to many children from the Lyme Regis area.

The cheque was handed over to Rickey Austin, representing the youth club, by Donna Drew, Brownies Gemma and Stella (Brownie and Claire Wiscombe).

Recycle your Christmas tree with district council scheme

CLEARING up after Christmas is being made a little easier thanks to the district council running a Christmas tree collection service until the end of the month.

Householders in West Dorset can get their real Christmas tree collected and taken away for composting until Friday, January 28th.

WDDC staff will be using smaller trucks to follow the usual recycling vehicles on their routine rounds, and picking up trees from addresses where collections have been pre-booked.

The trees are then taken to a depot, where they are chipped with the resulting mulch used as compost.

Leader of WDDC Robert Gould said: "This is a great opportunity to recycle your tree and help make Christmas more environmentally friendly."

"Last year we stopped over 11 tonnes of Christmas trees going to landfill, which was a tremendous effort by local people and I'm sure we can do as well this time around."

Residents should ensure that trees are stripped of any baubles or tinsel as these cannot be recycled.

Bookings must be made 24 hours in advance either at www.dorsetforyou.com/recycling/west or by calling 01305 251010.

Share a lift and save money

SHARING lifts could save Dorset residents £800 a year is the message from the county council's online car share scheme.

Carsharedorset.com provides a totally free car-share scheme where you can find others making the same journey as you every day. You can then offer to take turns driving, offer someone a lift, in exchange for a contribution to the fuel costs, or look for someone to give you a lift.

Joseph Rose shares a journey from Bridport to Dorchester several times a week. He said: "I realised that lots of people make exactly the same journey as me every day. By car sharing I not only save money, which is great when fuel is so expensive, but I do my bit for the environment and help reduce congestion, too. For me it's such a simple change and it has made a real difference to my bank balance. I don't know why I didn't do it before."

If the potential savings aren't enough to lure you in, the website is also offering £25 worth of high street vouchers to the 3,000th member to sign up.

Chris Hook, Dorset County Council's workplace travel plan co-ordinator, said: "Carsharedorset.com is approaching an exciting milestone by signing up our 3,000th member."

"The more people who sign up, the greater their chances of finding a match. There are people all around the county making similar journeys from home to work every day. If everybody shared once a week, that would reduce commuter congestion by 10 per cent at a stroke. There's nothing to lose."

To sign up and find a car-share companion or two, just go to www.carsharedorset.com.

Town council to take over gritting?

The town council are now considering offering a more comprehensive response in the future to the problems caused by severe weather conditions, in particular icy roads.

Councillor Owen Lovell, chairman of the Strategy and Policy Committee, will lead a discussion at tonight's meeting on the implications and extent of service to be offered in the future should the town council accept responsibility for gritting areas of the highway to supplement the Dorset County Council gritting schedule.

Currently the public are encouraged to use the grit bins provided by the town council at agreed locations throughout the town and subsequently replenished with grit by the county council.

An advisory sticker is on order to attach to each bin displaying safety information, contact details and a notice that grit is to be only used on public roads.

Areas of risk

In addition, this winter town council employees using all available supplies of grit, have given attention to a number of important junctions and areas of risk.

A report to tonight's meeting stresses that cost effective options need to be considered such as the possibility of more mechanised grit spreading as well as bulk purchase and storage of grit.

At present the town council has an ample supply of grit courtesy of Dorset County Council, says the report.

At a meeting before Christmas when heavy snow was forecast Councillor Stan Williams urged the town council to be more pro-active with regard to grit spreading as used to happen in the old borough council days.

Referring to a previous snowfall, Councillor Williams said Hill Road was "absolutely lethal".

Deputy town clerk Simon Ratcliff reiterated that town council had been out gritting the major junctions but one problem was that some staff members had not been able to get into work because of the snow.

Photographer Gill will be rooting for Andy at the Australian Open

By TOM GLOVER

SPORTS photographer Gill Elliott will be jetting off to Australia this week to go court-side at one of the world's leading tennis tournaments.

The Seaton-based photographer lived in Lyme Regis for 14 years and still regularly runs courses at the Town Mill Bakery, as well as from her home studio in Seaton.

Gill will be attending the Australian Open at Melbourne Park, which begins next Monday, January 17th.

This will be Gill's third visit to the tournament and she will be hoping to build on her growing reputation working for the International Sports Photography Agency.

In recent years Gill has also attended many other major tournaments including the US Open and Queen's.

Having seen Andy Murray narrowly miss out on the title last year, Gill is tipping him for success this time around. "It would be lovely if Andy Murray gets it this time. That would be stupendous," she said.

Gill will return from Australia at the end of the month and her next ten-week course will be running from Monday, February 7th.

A current exhibition of her students' work is at the Boston Tea Party in Honiton, it runs until Sunday, February 20th. To find out more about Gill's courses email gill@revision-photography.com

Work about to start on new lighting scheme for the town

LEAFLETS from SSE (Scottish and Southern Electricity Group) have been dropping on doormats all over Lyme Regis this week informing residents that the street lighting system is going to be renewed.

As a result the current orange lighting will be replaced with a softer white light, considered to be more acceptable.

Work on the new lighting is due to start this month and completed before Easter.

Some of the current lights have not been touched since the original gas lamps were replaced by electric lamps more than half a century ago and corrosion and the passage of time have left some in a poor state.

Lyme Regis Town Council's street lighting group, led by Councillor Lorna Jenkin, were due to meet with two officers from SSE yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon to discuss how many of the street lights in the historic part of Lyme can be replaced with either wall-hung heritage-style lamps, or iron standards with old-style decorated bases, to be painted black rather than standard grey.

The council has put aside £5,000 to pay for the extra cost of this plan, and to provide similar lamps in some of its own public areas.

The lighting group also includes a member of Turn Lyme Green and has received ideas from the Lyme Society on maximising the value of this scheme to the old town of Lyme.

■ TWO wall mounted street lights on the Monmouth Hotel which are due to be replaced

"This renewal of street lighting may have to last for the next 50 years," said Councillor Jenkin, "so we really need to get it right. I would value input from residents who can contact me on cllr.lorna.jenkin@lymeregistown-council.gov.uk or on my home telephone number 443703.

"Tonight's (Wednesday) meeting of the Strategy and Policy committee will receive information from Dorset County Council on a proposal to achieve cost saving through reducing street lighting periods.

"Anyone who has a comment to make is invited to attend the meeting at 7pm in the Guildhall and will have an opportunity to speak for three minutes on any item on the agenda, including this matter.

"It is important that councillors are aware of ratepayers' concerns and ideas as the replacement of street lighting will begin within weeks."

Residents call for traffic measures after road crash

By Paul Crompton

A SERIOUS crash which resulted in three young men being rushed to hospital has led residents in Charmouth to call for better traffic control measures along the stretch of road.

The men were taken to Dorset County Hospital with serious injuries when the dark coloured Rover 220 they were travelling in smashed into a wall along Axminster Road.

The driver lost control of the car and drove through a wooden fence, careered across a grass verge and clipped a brick pillar before hitting a wall outside Thistlegate House Residential Care Home.

A Charmouth resident reports hearing a car with a modified exhaust driving up and down the road just before the accident at around 2am on Sunday.

Thankful

Police are investigating the circumstances surrounding the crash, involving the men, all from the local area and aged 20, 23 and 25 years old.

John Corney, owner of the care home, said: "We are very thankful nobody was killed. Of course, we were pretty shocked to find a car slammed into our gate. It's not the sort of thing you expect to find."

"Looking at the car the people are lucky to be alive. We understand they were seriously injured but at least they got out with their lives."

Mr Corney said the night staff at the care home heard a loud bang around the time of the incident. Staff were unable to leave or return to work in the morning as the car was blocking the property's entrance prior to its removal. Mr Corney is now calling for a revision of the speed limit and better traffic calming measures to be installed along the road.

He said: "It really was an accident waiting to happen. The cars go past our drive seemingly well in excess of the speed limit."

"We have witnessed a number of near misses because of the differential speed of visitors or staff coming out of the drive to the speed of vehicles coming down the hill. It's a dramatic difference."

"This car has careered across the verge and smashed into our wall. Thank God staff or visitors were not exiting or entering the property at the time. If it was during the day it would have been a catastrophe."

"Really we would like an enquiry to try and get some sort of traffic calming in place."

Any witnesses who saw the incident or saw or heard anything prior to the incident are asked to call PC Angus Wilson on 01305 222222.

View from the Woodmead Halls

By Stan Williams, Chairman of the Management Committee

LAST year was certainly an important one for the Woodmead Halls, the highlight being the completion of the solar energy system which has seen us generate over 14,000 kilowatts of electricity since the project was completed.

The halls are not far from being totally self-sufficient as far as energy is concerned and we are hopeful of being able to sell off our excess electricity to the National Grid in the future.

As we move into 2011 the management committee is now planning further improvements to our already excellent facilities and these will mostly concern the stage area.

We will shortly be submitting planning permission for the construction of a third dressing room in the area behind the stage as well as office accommodation, having just secured a £3,000 grant from West Dorset District Council's 106 Planning Gain fund.

At the same time we will be looking to upgrade our public address system and stage lighting facilities.

The halls have been designated as the town's emergency centre and we are also in discussion with Dorset County Council and Lyme Regis Town Council over the possibility of having a Broadband connection installed, vital for communications in the case of an emergency.

Bookings for 2011 are already looking healthy and there are few days when there is nothing going on at the halls.

Although we are faced with increased costs due to the rise in VAT, the committee has decided to hold booking fees and bar prices at their current levels so we continue to provide excellent value.

Finally, I would like to wish all hall users, existing and potential, the very best for 2011.

Sailors get together

MEMBERS past and present celebrated the 90th anniversary of Lyme Regis Sailing Club on Sunday - the actual day the organisation was formed.

In a welcoming speech, commodore David Beer told a gathering of nearly 100 members and guests on January 9th 1921 that the club was founded at one of Lyme's grand houses, Belmont, at the top of Cobb Road, the home many years later of the late internationally acclaimed author John Fowles.

It was decided that it was necessary to form a club so that a set of sailing rules could be drawn up for sailing activities in Lyme Bay. Many old friendships were renewed at the anniversary party after a lapse of 25 years or more and the club was festooned with old photographs of past events. There was also a 90th anniversary cake with the candles being blown out by former commodores.

On Sunday morning, the anniversary activities continued with the staging of the annual Junk Boat race across the harbour. Results: Style - Simone Clarke; innovation - Pheobe, Saffron and Alice Clarke; performance - Allan Tyler and Martin Moore.

The junk boats were judged by the Commodore who presented the prizes afterwards in the clubhouse.

Working hard to secure library future

THE future of Lyme Regis library will be discussed by town councillors at tonight's (Wednesday) meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee.

Councillors will receive an update on the ongoing review of library services in Dorset with the future of the Lyme Regis library in Silver Street under threat because of a cut in funding.

Further meetings are being held by the county council and it is expected that the picture will become clearer in mid-February.

Meanwhile, an agenda note states that Lyme's county councillor, Colonel Geoffery Brierley, is "working hard to secure the future of Lyme Regis library".

Strawberry Field

LYME Regis Town Council's future intentions for the Strawberry Field has been listed as an agenda item at tonight's (Wednesday) Strategy and Policy Committee following a request at the last town forum by resident Terry O'Grady.

Part of the 11-acre Charmouth Road site is now occupied as a pitch and putt course, run by the Golf Club, but plans to open 26 allotments were thwarted by legal difficulties.

'Far-sighted' ex-councillor dies in Australia

A FORMER Lyme Regis town and district councillor has died in Australia.

Mr Ted Street served on Lyme Regis Town Council in the 1990s and will be remembered as a straight talking councillor who also won a seat on West Dorset District Council. His wife Joy also served on the town council. The couple lived in View Road and returned to Australia to live when they came off the council.

Mr Street, who was in his mid 80s, worked in education in Australia. He died last week in Adelaide after a long illness. He is survived by a daughter, Dr Jackie Street.

Town clerk Mike Lewis described Mr Street as a "far sighted" councillor and remembers that he first came up with the idea of extending the cart road.

Friend and former council colleague Ken Whetlor called on Mr Street when he spent some time in Australia in February last year whilst visiting his son Jon.

He said: "We were made very welcome by all the family and spent a wonderful evening with them. Certainly at that time Ted had lost none of his own particular personality. His memory of Lyme was as good as ever and he was still as passionate about the town of his birth."

Ship Inn fancy dress night raises £750 for the Majorettes and pre-school

A FANCY dress fundraiser held for Lyme Regis Majorettes and the preschool, at the Ship Inn, proved to be a great success.

Raffle tickets sold before and at the event raised £750 for the two organisations.

The organisers would like to thank Dave and Mary Henson for hosting the event and providing a free buffet for all who attended.

They also helped to sell a large number of raffle tickets making the event such a success.

The organisers would also like to say a special thank you to Ray Jackson who donated the first prize of a 20lb turkey. Thanks also go to all those who donated prizes, bought tickets and turned up on the night to support the event.

TIC 'safe' at least until 2012

THE future of the award-winning Tourist Information Centre in Lyme Regis is safe until at least 2012, town councillors have been told.

Lyme Regis Town Council own the Guildhall Cottage, which houses the West Dorset District Council run TIC.

Town clerk Mike Lewis told a recent meeting that the lease on the TIC did not run out until 2012 and that WDDC were committed to running the facility at least until that time.

The town council occupies the office space above the TIC but are looking for more accommodation and there has been discussion on the possibility of creating a reception area on the ground floor for the town council and sharing facilities with the TIC.

A further suggestion had also been put forward that if the Lyme Regis Museum's plan to extend their premises reached fruition it might be possible for the TIC to be located in the museum building.

The museum has asked the town council to come to a quick decision over the possibility of using the present council car park as part of their development plans but councillors have stated they want to consider the development of the whole site, including the Marine Theatre, before making a final decision.

The development will be discussed again tonight (Wednesday) at a meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee.

Time to open debate on what theatre you want

■ I AM extremely grateful for the extensive coverage and the supportive editorial note about The Marine Theatre in recent issues of the View from Lyme Regis. May I now take the opportunity to summarise where we are and what we plan for the medium and longer term future.

When I spoke to the town council about our current financial issues I was careful to begin by saying that what was remarkable was not that I was there, but that I hadn't been there before.

Support from our town council has been nothing short of magnificent but they, and we, have always understood that running a professional theatre and, at the same time, meeting the diverse needs of local groups and audiences, would need significantly more funding.

I say, again, that we are seen as one of the three main arts providers in West Dorset but we exist on less than half the core funding of the two others while providing more events and attracting more visitors than either. This has been the rationale behind approaches to The Arts Council and to WDDC. We could not have been more persistent in the pressing of our claims to WDDC; it has been a four year campaign. I am dismayed that they have not been willing to acknowledge our case thus far but we are, at least, promised a full review at the end of 2011 and there may be reason for optimism.

I am also optimistic about the fact that West Dorset are consulting on our suggestion that a small levy on their Lyme Regis car parks could meet the needs of Lyme Regis people: not just for the benefit of the theatre but for the Woodmead Halls, the Youth Club, B Sharp and many other of the entirely worthy organisations which this small community manages to sustain.

At the end of the day, however impressive our professional programme and however many of our 22,000 customers may come from outside Lyme, this theatre is as nothing if it is not meeting the needs of our local community.

The LymeArts Community Trust originated in 2002 from the very clear wish of the people of this town for a theatre of the kind which we have tried to manage for the past eight years. We do think that now may be the time to open up the debate again about what sort of theatre the people of Lyme Regis want for their town and to this end we will be holding an open day and consultation, probably in early March. Out of this will come, we hope, a new and sustainable vision, new recruits for our volunteers and our "Friends" organisation and, particularly, two or three people who might be willing to act as trustees.

This has been a very enervating few months at the theatre but our determination, staff, trustees, Friends and volunteers alike to give this town the theatre it wants and deserves, is undimmed.

Change in culture

■ I WAS pleased to see in Lyme Matters that the Club For Young People as your number one wish for 2011. Halting the tide of empty houses as second homes in Lyme and West Dorset is my second wish.

I have saved a lot of articles covering young people's issues since we moved over from Bridport to Lyme 10 years ago now. I have to roll my eyes when I remember the headlines and the culture of bad press, people grumbling about jobs and drugs.

The good news is there is a shift in culture. There are lots of reasons for this, but one sure one is the encouragement by many including positive press to see things differently and the desire to want the best for Lyme's next generation, whoever they may be.

I remember being really fed up with the tide of bad feeling towards young people and still no skate park. (I have promised myself there should be one in the gardens again one day even if I am 80 and have to join the council!) Relations between the service providers were not good, I had left my job as youth worker in charge at Bridport, which I really hadn't wanted to do, and I was travelling to Weymouth and Portland to work with disenfranchised youth thinking this is mad when there was such a clear need in Lyme.

Then Nick, my husband, came back from the Nags Head one night and said he had met Jacques Verhaeren. He was really excited by this young man's charisma and wanted me to meet him....this was the real beginning of Lyme Youth Arts B Sharp. Jack was working in the Cobb Arms and trying to busk to make a living (although was constantly moved on). He loved Lyme and I remember him saying he couldn't understand why Lyme hated young people so much. So with his prospects in mind along with many others that I had met, we began to do some positive thinking and so began B Sharp.

Now look what's happened. I feel very lucky to be in the position with my new job and B Sharp getting funding, although I am a bit too busy for my liking. However, I am looking forward to doing my best work along with others in making the future brighter for the next generation. I am going to need all the help I can get to make it happen. I have got a great team of support for B Sharp and for the new centre for young people. As Marcus Dixon said: "A lot of work has gone into laying the foundations for the new well resourced club and young people, the Youth Service and the Lyme Regis Development Trust to make this a reality".

I appreciate the support you have given the various projects over time. I have kept most if not all of the articles and letters, good ones and not so good. As you say "life in Lyme will be rarely dull and this we can be grateful".

Lanterns are spoiling the hedgerows

DURING Carnival Week it was a memorable sight to see the Chinese lanterns rising from the beach and drifting out to sea. On New Year's Eve there were quite a few in the sky, this time drifting up from the beach and over the town.

A walk on New Year's Day revealed a white, bin-liner sized piece of rubbish draped from a tree in Uplyme Road and another on the pavement, yet another was hanging off a hedge in Haye Lane - all the remains of these lanterns. Walking from Seaton to Branscombe six more could be seen spread over hedges or in the fields, all complete with their platforms to hold the heat source; many more must be disfiguring the countryside and endangering wildlife and grazing animals.

In many places, if you drop litter you can be liable to an on-the-spot fine; isn't releasing one of these lanterns even more irresponsible than dropping a cigarette end or sweet wrapper? I do hope that more consideration is given to repeating the release of these lanterns at any future event in Lyme.

They deserve front page

ON last week's front page we reported that Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival had yet another succesful year and had been able to distribute over £8,300 to local worthy causes.

This was not the most sensational front page splash I have published - but one which I think warrants such prominence.

The regatta and carnival is one of my favourite local organisations - probably because I spent nine years back in the 1970s as secretary.

They were great days and I was fortunate to have had a group of fit young men (and a few girls as well) who gave up a week of their holiday to stage the August event.

Many friendships were forged during those years which have lasted the test of time.

Whilst it was always hard work, it was a wonderfully enjoyable experience and some of the memories have provided me with numerous stories which have been retold in countless after dinner speeches.

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

It was much easier organising public events in those days. There was no dreaded health and safety to worry about. The term "risk assessment" had not been invented.

Our modus operandi was real seat of your pants stuff.

We just got on and did it and hoped nobody got hurt or offended in the process. That was not always the case.

We chalked up many firsts - the Red Arrows, parachutists on the beach, high divers and the torchlight procession.

I can't remember how much money we made but we always seemed to come out on the right side of the balance sheet and were able to make a few donations to local groups and support such events as the old folk's Christmas dinner.

It was never just about making money but putting together a week of events which gave much pleasure to locals and visitors alike.

Fast forward to the last few years and it is quite amazing that the current committee, few in number, have raised so much. The 2010 figure meant that they had raised more than £50,000 over the last seven years - a remarkable feat for such a small committee.

Led by chairman Teresa Evemy who has been a regatta stalwart open again. I had a look round the building last year and I was surprised it was not in a worse state, although there was a great deal of dampness caused by a lack of maintenance in recent times.

With help from Dorset County Council, Lyme Regis Development Trust has acquired the premises for £60,000 and a fundraising campaign is well and truly off the ground to get the building habitable.

The trust is hoping as many people as possible will pop in on Saturday to give their views on how they think the club should be shaped in the future, sign up for some voluntary work and choose a new name.

Barbara on the mend

FORMER six-times mayor Barbara Austin was rushed into Dorchester Hospital last week with pneumonia but I am pleased to report that she is on the mend and making good progress. Hopefully she will be back home soon.

Those of us who know Barbara well were aware that she was not well before Christmas but in her usual indefatigable manner she carried on with the organisation of the Old Folk's Christmas lunch and turning on of the Christmas lights.

It would be easy to tell Barbara to take it a bit easier when she is fully recovered - but I know what the answer would be!

ONE of the View's eagle-eyed readers sent me this photograph, taken after Christmas, of the recycling centre at Holmbush car park - highlighting the irresponsibility of people dumping rubbish outside the receptacles when they are clearly full. We could argue that West Dorset District Council should empty the containers more often but a resident who lives nearby tells me that this is not an uncommon occurrence and puts the blame firmly on second home owners and those who rent cottages over the Christmas period.

EVENT OF THE WEEK (ahead) ...

THIS space is usually reserved for events that have happened in the past week but as it is unusually quiet in Lyme this week I am devoting it to an event coming up which I hope as many people as possible will support.

I'm referring to the open day at the former young people's club in Church Street on Saturday - the first opportunity for the public to see inside the former Church Hall since 2006.

There were gasps of astonishment when it was first revealed that repairs costing £250,000-£300,000 would have to be carried out before the club could

Launch of online image bank to showcase local photographers

THE potential for the Malthouse at the Town Mill in Lyme Regis as an exhibition venue was highlighted with the launch of artist Chelsea Davine's "The Shed Photography" project.

Chelsea exhibited for a week her recent body of work at the Malthouse before taking it to London for her solo show at the Russell Gallery from January 20th. She works in Barcelona and in Lyme Regis where she has family and many friends.

"The Shed" is Chelsea's latest project, a website which aims to promote and showcase local amateur photographers' work. Since Lyme's ArtsFest in September, many people have shared their work and images with Chelsea and told her about their struggles to reach a wider audience.

This new website offers a forum for photographers to share their skills and talent by enabling them to access that audience. Assistance with marketing, printing and administration provides the opportunity for making connections with potential clients, using Chelsea's professional know-how.

'The Malthouse is a superb venue'

"The Shed" acts as an online image bank, gallery and directory for the photographer and the public who are looking either for a particular service or a particular piece of artwork.

As well as her paintings, Chelsea exhibits pieces of her own photography work in large format including some unusual, old and possibly unique images of the Cobb and Lyme Regis, taken before the sea defence work at Langmoor and Lister Gardens and along Marine Parade. Her work also includes photographs of architecture, with details that she uses to inspire her work.

The venue proved to be the perfect setting for the very well attended opening, with a fire outside in the courtyard and music by popular local musicians Papa Le Gal who played an acoustic set.

Chelsea said: "I am most grateful for the very generous donations made by The Town Mill Cheese-monger, The Town Mill Brewery and the Millside Restaurant which made the event so successful.

"The Malthouse is a superb venue and I was pleased to welcome visitors and friends to see my work and explain how "The Shed" will work.

New Year safety warning from new lifeboat manager

THE new man in charge of the RNLI lifeboat station in Lyme Regis has issued his New Year advice to those going to sea in and around the resort: "Have a great time, but just use your commonsense."

Grahame Forshaw starts 2011 as Lifeboat Operations Manager, combining that volunteer role with his full-time job as harbourmaster.

The lifeboat crew answered 36 emergency calls during 2010, eight less than in 2009.

Mr Forshaw said: "We will always be here as back-stop with our aim to save lives at sea. We all have an inbuilt survival instinct and the sea is for everyone to enjoy.

"I just urge all those who go to sea to take all the proper precautions to stay safe and enjoy themselves."

As for his new role, Mr Forshaw said: "I see no conflict between being harbourmaster and Lifeboat Operations Manager. I am on the spot most of the day and I know all the key players. I think each of my roles is enhanced by the other."

◆ Lyme Regis RNLI lifeboat crew answered their first 'shout' of the year during a training exercise. The crew were already at sea when they spotted what appeared to be two distress flares in the direction of Eype's Mouth.

After a thorough search nothing was found at sea, but coastguards ashore reported finding evidence of rockets – possibly fireworks – in a car park.

Sue will never forget her trek of a lifetime

LYME Regis businesswoman, Sue Williams, returned home from an inspirational trek across North India in aid of children's charities with memories she will never forget.

The 11-day expedition saw Sue, who has run Staples Stores in Staples Terrace for 15 years, travel from Dehli to the spiritual home of the Dalai Lama, Dharamsala, including a climb to an altitude of 3,550 metres and a visit to the Taj Mahal.

Sue, 51, said: "The walking was tough but my training stood me in good stead, and even though I was the 'gran' of the group, I was never struggling to keep up."

"Camping out in minus five conditions was not so much fun! The route was a wide horseshoe shape,

by Francesca Evans

so we were going up for four days and down for one. It was an amazing experience."

Sue listed her first night children in hospital every year dressed as clowns; MediEquip4Kids, a leading healthcare charity that works with medical staff,

“It was an amazing experience” in Dehli, the beautiful scenery and the “amazing sense of elevation” in reaching her final camp as some of her most vivid memories.

She raised £3,700 towards her group's total of £65,000, which will be donated to three UK children's charities - Theodora's Children's Trust, which finances 21 doctors who visit 50,000 play therapists, health practitioners and the ambulance service; and the Bolton Lads and Girls Club who work with deprived children.

Sue thanked her daughter Ali for taking over the shop when she was away, and her other children Simon and Caroline for coming home at weekends to help out, as well as all those who supported and sponsored her.

■ “I DID IT!” Sue Williams (left) on top of the world after completing her 3,500 metres high trek in North India, describing it at “an amazing sensation of elation”. She is pictured above (second from the left) with the rest of her party. Sue raised nearly £4,000 for three charities and also visited the Taj Mahal and the spiritual home of the Dalai Lama

Gig Club rowing to Barfleur but they won't leave port

GIG club members and lifeboat crew in Lyme Regis are planning to row all the way to the French port of Barfleur and back to raise funds for the RNLI.

But they won't be leaving the lifeboat station at Lyme Regis harbour.

The crews will be using rowing machines in the boathouse to 'cover' the 208 return miles to Barfleur which may soon be twinned with Lyme Regis.

The 'rowathon' is being called Sculls on the Slipway as part of the RNLI's major fundraising event SoS Day on January 28th.

Gig Club chairman Marcus Dixon said: "We are delighted to help out with the RNLI's big day and we will be asking people to sponsor our rowers per mile."

"We thought Barfleur was a good choice since our own town may soon be twinned with it. Members of the public can take a turn at rowing if they are feeling energetic."

Special fundraising evening for crash victim's family

AN evening of entertainment is being organised at the Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis to support the family of crash victim Alex Quan-Yat Koon who lost both his legs when a Royal Mail van ran into the Mariners Hotel in October.

The event is being organised by the "Pride of Lyme" group who operate under the slogan of "Local People Helping Local People".

Mr Quan-Yat-Koon, known as Sandy, is now out of hospital and rebuilding his life as an accountant.

The evening of entertainment is being held on Saturday, January 22nd and will consist of a children's party and games from 6 pm to 7 pm followed by a disco featuring the popular Wessex Star and duo It Takes Two from 7 pm to midnight.

There will be a bar, free raffle and an auction.

Tickets (£7 for adults and £3 for children) are available from the Bell Cliff restaurant in Lyme Regis

Discover your interior design style

Unless you've been lucky enough to build your house from the ground up, you will at some point be stuck with somebody else's ideas of interior decoration. You may decide to live with the royal blue living room and daisy wallpaper in the kitchen, or you might feel a sudden urgent desire to paint the house magnolia. Neither solution is ideal, as in neither case are you permitting your own style preferences and creativity to find expression. But just how do you pinpoint your style?

One way is to turn yourself into a sponge. Absorb everything you come into contact with even if it doesn't seem relevant at the time. I was once asked to design a bright, colourful and "fun" kitchen for a family with young children. I poured through design magazines, and visited countless shops for inspiration. But it wasn't until I found myself watching a 1950s Tom & Jerry cartoon on television that the idea struck. The turquoises, blacks, yellows and pinks of the cartoon looked fresh and fun. A 1950s-style kitchen with all mod cons was the answer!

There is very little in modern design which is completely new. Most styles and changes in fashion are amalgamations, adjustments and improvements on previous designs and trends. Today's stream-lined contemporary look harks back to 1930s modernism combined with a dash of 1960s spirit. And, yes, today's turquoise, yellow and pink toasters, kettles and lemon squeezers have the 1950s to thank for their design. No one should blatantly copy the work of others as this is an empty exercise, but rather mulch together sights and sounds from your environment to create the style that suits you. Actively seek out inspiration from museums, stately homes, art galleries, show rooms, furniture catalogues, magazines, books, films, TV programmes and nature. Remember the colours, sounds and sights of your last holiday. Why did they make you feel happy? How can you use these elements to recreate that contented feeling in your own home?

Start a file in which you can put magazine cuttings. Take photos or buy postcards of places, buildings, furniture, beaches, sunsets... anything that inspires you. Carry a small notebook in which you can sketch ideas. Often the secret to why an architectural feature works is hidden in the proportion of one part to another. Photographing or sketching this accurately will be the only way of reproducing this later. The ancient Greeks were very keen on geometry and used it extensively in their buildings. Try to analyse why a particular room or building looks and feels right to you. What are the proportions? Is it symmetrical or asymmetrical? Are there a lot of decorative features, or is it very plain? By finding answers to these questions, you are finding your own style.

Once you have a store of inspiration, you are then ready to source materials, chose colours and buy furniture that fits your style. Perhaps you've been inspired by a holiday on the English seaside. You've taken photos of the flint houses with their maritime blue trim, the long stretches of sandy beach with its tufts of marsh grass, the colourful beachhouses lined up along the shore. Translate these images and feelings into your own environment by sourcing sofas and chairs in a relaxed design, upholstered in sandy neutrals; paint your walls with a creamy wash; let the sun stream into the room with modern voiles, linen blinds or plantation shutters; accent it all with those beautiful sea blues and greens. Keep your accessories natural - wood, stone, shells, flowers. If you stay true to those elements which gave you a sense of pleasure on your holiday, you will create a happy space in your home.

The more you explore and make a conscious note of the things that inspire you, the more confident you will become with your own style preferences. Always stay open to new influences. Keep your eyes and ears open. Your style is something which should grow as you grow. Your style is part of who you are. Why not make it part of your home environment?

• Chris Rudge Renewable Power Systems

Solar Photovoltaic electricity, (PV), fitted at home or business has grown massively over the last year after introduction by the Government Feed in Tariff (FIT) Financial Incentive, paying people to generate their own electricity.

This has motivated both environmentally aware people and long term investors to opt for having Solar Power installed on their homes, offices or factories.

A Solar PV system has a 25 year life of generating electricity for use by you during daylight, has no moving parts or expensive servicing and with the Feed in Tariff, will pay for itself in around 10 years or less. You'll receive quarterly payments which can amount to over £1000 a year (for a 3kWp system), free to use electricity plus additional payments for exporting your excess power onto the grid.

To obtain these generous FIT payments from your Solar PV system, the installation company needs to be Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS) approved and hold relevant electrical qualifications. On completion, you will be issued with an MCS certificate to enable you to obtain Feed in Tariff payments.

The leading MCS approved installer for this area, Chris Rudge Renewable Power, has been fitting Solar PV systems since 2005, and having built up a friendly team of fully experienced installers, providing the Solar PV installation market with years of experience coupled with advantageous installation costs which effectively maximise your investment.

Based in Seaton with their premises by the River Axe, they are ideally situated near the Devon/ Dorset border to carry out cost effective installations throughout the South West.

The majority of systems are installed within days, most of the work is on the roof, with some electrical works inside the house. Solar PV systems will be fitted with the minimum of fuss.

All Chris Rudge Renewable Power Solar PV systems come with a standard 5 year warranty for the whole installation, plus a manufacturers 25 year output warranty.

If you are considering having one of these Green investment systems fitted to your home or business, don't delay as there is only just over a year left of the higher rate Feed in Tariff, call Chris Rudge Renewable Power now on 01297 306114 for free, friendly and no obligation advice or site survey. www.chrisrudge.co.uk.

- Solar Photovoltaic will earn you money with "Free to Use" power all year long..
- Gives you a regular income from generating your own green power for the next 25 years.
- At 9-10% return, it's better than any bank can offer!

Every Solar PV system is individually designed using quality MCS approved components

New exhibition opens at Dorset County Museum

Dorset County Museum is proud to announce the opening of an important new exhibition, Georgian Faces: Portrait of a County, on 15 January 2011. It will include over sixty, mostly previously unseen, portraits of the people who shaped Dorset during the eighteenth century. The exhibition runs until 30 April 2011.

For the past year, curator Gwen Yarker has been selecting portraits for the exhibition from all over Dorset and further afield. Some paintings are coming on loan from national institutions, but the majority will come from private collections.

The exhibition will feature works by many of the most important portrait artists of the eighteenth century including Sir Joshua Reynolds, George Romney, Thomas Gainsborough and Allan Ramsay. It will also throw a spotlight on Thomas Beach, who was born at Milton Abbas and trained with Reynolds. This will also be the first time William Hogarth's portrait of Thomas Coombes, a Dorset boatman aged 108 has been exhibited for over 100 years. Hogarth's father-in-law, the famous decorative painter Sir James Thornhill, was a native of the county who retired to Dorset in the 1720s.

A full programme of events accompanies the exhibition including lectures, tours, talks and seminars. For full details of these and all events at Dorset County Museum please see our website on www.dorsetcountymuseum.org

A fully illustrated catalogue written by Gwen Yarker will be available from the Museum Shop with a foreword by HRH The Duchess of Cornwall and funded by the Paul Mellon Centre for British Studies in Art.

There is always plenty going on in the Museum including activities in each gallery plus tours and trails. And don't forget - two children are admitted free with every adult.

Local pianist reunites Bill Wyman with the Stones

■ Ben Waters has put together a stellar line-up for his tribute album to Rolling Stones piano player Ian Stewart

THIS week, news that Bridport based boogie-woogie piano player extraordinaire, Ben Waters, has pulled off a rock 'n' roll reunion of mammoth proportions.

Ben is currently putting together a tribute album to Ian Stewart, who used to tinkle the ivories for the Rolling Stones from the band's inception until his death in 1985.

Not only has Ben lined up none other than Keith Richards on four of the tracks, but one features the full Rolling Stones line-up with - for the first time in 20 years - Bill Wyman on bass.

What some consider the "definitive" line-up of the band has recorded a cover of Bob Dylan's 'Watching The River Flow'.

Also contributing separately to the album are Stones drummer Charlie Watts (who played a show with Ben at Lyme's Marine Theatre back in 2009), that other boogie-woogie player par excellence, Jools Holland, and Ben's cousin, PJ Harvey. Old Stones stalwart Glyn Johns is on production duties.

Boogie for Stu will be released in March, with proceeds going to the British Heart Foundation - an apt cause as Stewart himself died of a heart attack. More news when we find out more.

■ The album features Bill Wyman (pictured right) playing with the Rolling Stones for the first time since 1991

■ The late great Ian Stewart

Around The World In 80 Days for Marine Theatre fundraiser

PACK your passport, bring your friends and come and enjoy a fun evening out at the Around The World In 80 Days fundraiser for the Marine Theatre. Produced and written by Lyme Regis resident Jenny Wiles.

Around The World In 80 Days: They're back! The intrepid local performers who last year had the cheek to present a seat-of-the-pants version of "Sherlock Holmes and the Hound of the Baskervilles" now offer their own interpretation of Jules Verne's Around The World In 80 Days - not in 80 days, not in 80 minutes, but in 45 minutes, between a ploughman's and pudding supper.

Raffle prizes and full Bar service all evening.

There will be two performances only - Thursday, January 27th and Friday 28th. Performances and meals will take place from 7.30pm to 9.30/10pm. Tickets cost £10 (includes ploughman's and pudding supper), and are available from the TIC (singly or for groups - tables seat 10 max).

Booking closes for this event on Monday, January 24th.

JENNY ECLAIR ADDS SECOND BRIDPORT DATE

DUE to overwhelming demand for tickets, Bridport Arts Centre is pleased to announce that Jenny Eclair will be bringing a second performance of 'Old Dog, New Trick' on Sunday, January 23rd at 8pm.

Fresh from her appearance in 'I'm A Celebrity, Get Me Out Of Here', Jenny will be trotting once around the block to prove that there's life in the old dog yet.

Tickets are available from Bridport Arts Centre on 01308 424 204 priced £15 full price, £14 members of the Arts Centre and £10 concession.

Sorenson and Law for Arts Centre Jazz

FRIDAY, January 14th sees Nick Sorenson and John Law come to Bridport Arts Centre. An exciting venture for the Centre, come and enjoy some soulful songs and smooth tunes in the intimate Art Garden Café. Bring your voice or instrument and join in for a short jam session as part of the evening.

World class pianist John Law (of the acclaimed 'Art of Sound Trio'), and saxophonist Nick Sorenson have developed a unique and compelling rapport, creatively interpreting jazz standards and popular songs alongside their original compositions, as featured on their recent CD "The Journey Home".

Tickets cost £7, and are available from the Bridport Arts Centre. The music starts at 8pm.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

STEWART Owers of Bridport, who featured in last week's column, has also sent us this poem to reflect on.

REFLECTIONS

Reflections mean peace - or so they say
Trees in water
Reeds in sky
Enjoy the wonder ere it pass you by.

Calm as a millpond
Till the ducks come to play
Magnificent chevrons
Herald this beautiful day.

Reflections in your mind
As well as on water
Reflect on those times
Don't let memories falter.

For God gave us minds
And eyes to see
Those lifelong memories -
Every one a part of me.

This ode to winter is by Maude E. Shenk who died in 1973.

WINTER

Don't you love the winter,
Sprightly time of ice and snow,
When the lakes are always frozen,
And the north winds briskly blow?
For 'tis then that sports are lively,

And you have the best of fun,
When the kiddies' cheery laughter tells you
Sledding time's begun.

There's a maiden holding madly to her hat.
Her frown's not sweet.
And a fat man tripping gently down
The frozen, slippery street.
There's an urchin just behind him
Grinning wickedly at all.
So he hopes, not without reason,
That the gentleman will fall.
When at evening all are gathered round
The hearth fire's ruddy glow,
And the walnut logs are sizzling,
And the fire is popping low.
Comes the thought that of the seasons
Winter, summer, spring or fall,
Hardy, sturdy, grim old winter
Is the finest of them all.

This verse is from Mary Dunning Thwing and tells about the times her husband would read to her from his fireside chair.

TWO BY THE FIRE

The blaze leaps out between the logs,
Orange and red and blue;
The burnished andirons reflect
The brilliance of its hue.

About the room the shadows dart,
Up to the ceiling fly;
They seek the books upon the walls,

Which dance to make reply.

They've found you out in the big armchair
Where over our book you're bent;
They light your face as you read aloud,
And I'm filled with a vast content.

Recently I was fortunate enough to be given "Poem for the Day - Two" (with a foreword by Andrew Motion). The entry for January 12th is this poem by the Kentucky poet Robert Browning Hamilton, who was born on this day in 1880.

ALONG THE ROAD

I walked a mile with Pleasure;
She chattered all the way,
But left me none the wiser
For all she had to say.

I walked a mile with Sorrow
And ne'er a word she said;
But oh, the things I learned from her
When Sorrow walked with me!

Bridport Leisure Centre joins national award scheme recognising the best health clubs in the country

BRIDPORT Leisure Centre has joined the Health Club Awards which recognises the best value clubs based on research conducted through members around the country.

The scheme measures the quality of customer service and facilities provided by clubs by asking customers to rate the clubs they are members of.

As Simon Brown, MD of Awards for Business who own and run the scheme explains "Belonging to a good club is a rewarding experience. Members probably spend more time there than they realise and it's become an integral part of their lifestyle. Providing them with a haven from their frantic day to day existence and at the same time helping them to tackle life in a healthier, more productive way.

Experience the buzz of The Green
Hornet in 3DTHE GREEN HORNET^{12A} (in 3D where available)

Britt Reid (Seth Rogen) is the son of LA's most prominent and respected media magnate and perfectly happy to maintain a directionless existence on the party scene until his father (Tom Wilkinson) mysteriously dies, leaving Britt his vast media empire. Striking an unlikely friendship with one of his father's more industrious and inventive employees, Kato (Jay Chou), they see their chance to do something meaningful for the first time in their lives: fight crime.

To get close to the criminals they come up with the perfect cover: they'll pose as criminals themselves.

Protecting the law by breaking it, Britt becomes the vigilante the Green Hornet as he and Kato hit the streets. Using all his ingenuity and skill, Kato builds the ultimate in advanced retro weaponry, The Black Beauty, an indestructible car equal parts firepower and horsepower. Rolling in a mobile fortress on wheels and striking the bad guys with Kato's clever gadgets, the Green Hornet and Kato quickly start making a name for themselves, and with the help of Britt's new Secretary Lenore Case (Cameron Diaz), they begin hunting down the man who controls LA's gritty underworld: Benjamin Chudnofsky (Christoph Waltz). But Chudnofsky has plans of his own: to swat down the Green Hornet once and for all.

TRUE GRIT¹⁵

Following the murder of her father by hired hand Tom Chaney (Josh Brolin), 14-year-old farm girl Mattie Ross (Hailee Steinfeld) sets out to capture the killer. To aid her, she hires the toughest U.S. marshal she can find, a man with "true grit," Reuben J. "Rooster" Cogburn (Jeff Bridges). Mattie insists on accompanying Cogburn, whose drinking, sloth, and generally reprobate character do not augment her faith in him. Against his wishes, she joins him in his trek into the Indian Nations in search of Chaney. They are joined by Texas Ranger LaBoeuf (Matt Damon), who wants Chaney for his own purposes. The unlikely trio find danger and surprises on the journey, and each has his or her "grit" tested.

A fantastic remake of the the 1969 original of the same name starring John Wayne, Robert Duvall and Dennis Hopper.

Sunshine paintings on show at West Bay

TWO new exhibitions open on Saturday, January 15th at Sladers Yard, West Bay, acclaimed wood engraver Howard Phipps and painter Diana Tapping both showing for the first time in the Rope Gallery, upstairs, with furniture by Petter Southall and an interesting selection of craft by British makers. In the Yard Gallery on the ground floor, ex-Long Bredy resident Stewart Jones reveals the hidden talent for painting which he has been quietly and pas-

It's nearly that time of the year again - oh no it's not - oh yes it is!

THE Bridport Pantomime Players will soon be back on stage at The Electric Palace with their annual pantomime which as always is a show suitable for the whole family from the youngest to the oldest - grandchildren to grandparents - enjoyable and entertaining no matter what age, and everyone knows the story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears. Not a lot of people know this, and in fact it's a closely guarded secret, but at every rehearsal the Players tuck into a bowl of porridge!

Goldilocks contains all that is expected of a pantomime - the usual cathphrases, magic, ghostly happenings, singing and dancing, booing and hissing - a good all-rounder for all ages. So cast off the gloom of winter, spring is just round the corner and come along to the Electric Palace during the first week of February.

The Players are pleased to welcome Tom Staple making his debut as a Dame who has two children - a son Silly Billy, Teresa Grinter who is being actively pursued by Marigold (Jess Ives), the village maiden whose sights are firmly set on him, and a daughter Goldilocks (Emily Deer), who falls prey to the whims of the Dastardly Squire (Sue Farrant), aided and abetted by his side-kick Igor (Steve Light)

The hero of the hour is a very important person, more commonly known as Edwin Smith (played by Amy Day). The Good Fairy, who puts all wrongs to rights, is Sandy Osborne, and the story would not be complete without the family of the Three Bears, John Day, Sarah Light and Tracy Cadman. The Snow Queen who with the help of her crystal ball can read everyone's innermost thoughts is Lucy Johnston.

Goldilocks will be on stage from Wednesday 2nd - Saturday, February 5th with a matinee on the Thursday and Saturday.

Tickets (£7.00 with reductions to £6.00) are on sale from Tuesday, January 4th at Pets' Pavilion South Street, Bridport, and the Box Office is open every day (except Sundays) from 10.00am - 4.00pm.

Wedding Fayre at the Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant - a 'most romantic waterside hotel'

FOLLOWING the success of their first Wedding Fayre last year the Alexandra is now putting on another show!

This is the perfect opportunity to see not only what the Alexandra has to offer but there will be exhibitors from the local area such as florists, photographers, cake makers, wine supplier, bridal wear designer and more.

Dorset's breathtaking coastline provides a naturally beautiful backdrop to weddings at the award-winning Alexandra Hotel in Lyme Regis, which was recently voted the 'Most Excellent Waterside Hotel 2011' by Conde Nast Johansens. In each area of the Hotel, including the latest wedding venue perched in a romantic garden setting - the Lookout Tower - there are breathtaking views of the historic Cobb harbour, Lyme Bay and the Jurassic Coastline.

Licensed for civil ceremonies, the Alexandra has a wonderful, intimate atmosphere for small weddings and for larger gatherings of up to 100 guests, the Wedding Breakfast can be enjoyed in the Conservatory or Alexandra Restaurant. However many guests are invited, they will find the Hotel's sweeping lawns the perfect place to gather for Champagne, Canapés, kisses and wonderful photographs that capture the very special atmosphere of the day.

If you're planning your Wedding, come and see what this fabulous Lyme Regis hotel and local Wedding suppliers can bring to you. Your Wedding day is one of the most important days of your life, so take your time to relax, perhaps walk around the beautiful grounds, look at the breathtaking views from the bridal suit, restaurants, garden and deck. Sit back and soak up the ambience of this elegant grade II listed building and see if the Alexandra is right for you.

Everyone is welcome, information will be on display and our restaurants and show bedrooms will be available for all to view. Tea and coffee will be available in our conservatory restaurant throughout the day.

The Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant Wedding Fayre is held on Sunday, 23rd January 2011 from 11am-4pm. For more details visit www.hotelalexandra.co.uk/weddings, call 01297 442010 or email events@hotelalexandra.co.uk Road safety week 2011 date and theme announced - get planning now!

THE date of Road Safety Week 2011 is 21-27 November 2011. The event is organised by Brake, the road safety charity, but open to everyone to help promote road safety during this established national awareness event.

Brake is encouraging schools, communities, companies and road safety professionals such as emergency services, health workers and local authorities to get involved. Wherever you live, and whatever you do, you can get involved and help raise awareness of the needless loss of life on our roads.

Every year Brake chooses a theme for media events it runs during Road Safety Week. In 2011, it has chosen 2young2die as its theme; the name of its campaign to stop young people dying and being maimed on roads, in particular in crashes caused by young drivers; crashes that kill young people in cars and on motorbikes and other road users, often due to speed, overtaking dangerously, drink and drugs, and not wearing seat belts. Road crashes are the biggest killer of young people (Death registrations in England and Wales, ONS, 2010 (21% of all deaths aged 15-24, 38% of all non-medical deaths). In 2009, 11 young people were killed and 125 more were seriously injured every week in Great Britain (Reported Road Casualties Great Britain 2009, Department for Transport, 2010, Table 34 (aged 15 -24 years, of which 266 deaths were 15-19 years old).

People taking part in the Week can choose to run an educational or campaign event on this theme, or on a different theme of their choice. Brake is also urging people to consider fundraising for the charity during RSW11. Brake provides services for road crash victims, including a helpline, and campaigns for road safety in schools, colleges, companies, communities and the media.

Go to www.roadsafetyweek.org.uk for tips and ideas on getting involved and to complete an online form telling the charity your plans for the week.

Ford celebrates UK market leadership as it moves into its centenary year

AS FORD of Britain enters its centenary year – marking 100 years in the UK – it is celebrating 34 consecutive years of car sales leadership and an astonishing 45 years of UK commercial vehicle sales leadership.

Ford's top-selling vehicle range secured almost 15 per cent of the UK's total 2010 market for the blue oval. Other highlights of the official full-year 2010 figures from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT) include:

- Number one UK car brand for 34 successive years.
- Ford commercial vehicles have been the UK's favourite for 45 years.
- Ford Fiesta is the UK best seller for the second successive year.
- Ford Fiesta and Ford Galaxy are segment leaders in fleet, retail and total sales.
- Ford Transit and Ford Fiesta Van registered significant sales increases compared with 2009.
- Ford sold 280,364 cars in the UK last year during an intensely competitive trading period which saw the end of the Government vehicle scrappage scheme in March.

Ford Fiesta was the UK car sales leader again in 2010, having taken the position from the Ford Focus in 2009, with 103,013 registrations.

Both the Ford Kuga and the Ford S-MAX secured increased sales in 2010, compared with 2009. Ford Kuga sales at 11,527 were up from 10,173 in 2009, and Ford S-MAX sales increased to 12,276 compared with 9,373 in 2009.

Ford Transit, launched in 1965, has led the commercial vehicle sector ever since. The Transit helped account for a significant growth in Ford commercial vehicle sales in 2010, totaling 62,308, up from 55,474 in 2009. Ford Transit sales alone were up from 36,760 in 2009 to 46,300 in 2010 while Ford Fiesta Van sales also increased for the year up from 2,429 in 2009 to 3,116 in 2010.

The official figures released by the SMMT today show that in a month hit by unusually severe weather UK car sales were down 18.0 percent to 123,817 units compared with December 2009. Ford car sales were 13,953, down from 21,732 in December 2009 and Ford's overall share of car sales was 11.3 per cent for the month.

Ford was the overall UK retail sales leader in December with Ford Ka, Ford Fiesta, Ford C-MAX and Ford Galaxy all leading their respective retail sales segments. Compared with December 2009, the Ford C-MAX, the Ford Kuga, the Ford S-MAX and the Ford Galaxy all registered overall sales increases.

Ford commercial sales were up in December compared with the same month in 2009: Ford medium commercial sales increased from 3,311 to 4,131 while Ford light commercial sales were up from 408 to 443.

Nigel Sharp, Ford Britain managing director, said: "Ford's 2010 sales performance benefitted from a steady flow of new models, including C-MAX, Mondeo, S-MAX and Galaxy, and the unrivalled strength of its dealer network. In an intensely competitive market our disciplined approach to the market saw a strengthening in retail and commercial sales, which was supported by a clear pricing and communications strategy.

"There will be tough market conditions again in 2011 but we are looking forward to a successful centenary year, starting with the launch of the exciting, new Ford Focus in the next couple of months."

▲ Ford Fiesta. The UK's number 1 best seller, representing 34 successive years of Ford car sales leadership in the UK.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

AMBERS' PROMOTION ON TRACK Hounds' fightback earns a point

COUNTY CUPS

BOTH Beaminster and Farway United were thwarted by waterlogged pitches. The rearranged ties are now scheduled for next weekend.

JOHN FOWLER CUP

Semi-Final
Luso-Chard 1 Misterton Res 2
MISTERTON Reserves booked a place in the John Fowler Cup Final after a hard-fought 2-1 win over Luso-Chard at Forton.

Both Missy goals came in the opening 20 minutes - Johnny Jackson opened the scoring before Ricky Smith netted from the penalty spot.

Misterton will be favourites to lift the trophy for the third time when they take on either Drimpton or Winsham United Reserves at Bridport's St Marys Ground on Thursday, January 20th.

PREMIER

South Petherton 4
West & Middle Chinnock 1
SOUTH Petherton moved back to the top of the league with a 4-1 win over lowly West & Middle Chinnock at Lightgate Lane.

Despite being on top for the majority of the match Pethy surprisingly found themselves one down after a quarter of an hour when striker Ashley Cooper, promoted from the Chinnocks' Reserves where he has netted 16 times, linked well with Ollie Hutchings and Nathan Davenport before slotting home.

The hosts missed a golden chance of leveling ten minutes before the interval when a penalty from Jon Hayter was saved at full stretch by keeper Matt Alford who went on to put in a MoM performance.

But Pethy did equalise on the stroke of half-time through skipper Lee Richards and this paved the way for a dominant second 45 showing.

Dean Ritchie marked his debut after signing from Westland Sports with the second and this was followed by strikes from Tim John and Rich Hebditch, last season's 32-goal top scorer who has also re-signed for the club after a spell with the Westland Sports.

Petherton manager Gordy Childs selected Ritchie as his top performer, he said: "He (Ritchie) was playing up front for Westlands but we used him in a central midfield role and he was outstanding."

Barrington 1 Combe Res 3

COMBE finally won their first game of the season and ended a miserable run of eight straight away defeats with a 3-1 win at Barrington's Shelway Lane.

The victory lifts the Saints off the foot of the table.

DIVISION ONE

Netherbury 2 Lyme Regis Res 0
TWO goals in three minutes earned Netherbury all three points and a jump to third place in the Division One table after a 2-0 win over Lyme Regis Reserves.

James Sayers open the scoring on the half-hour with his fifth goal of the season - a neat low left-footed shot that gave Seasiders' stopper Will Meech no chance.

Ryan Gay forced his way onto a long Danny Rawlings free-kick before bundling home the second soon after. Lyme certainly had their fair share of the play but looked woefully toothless up front and Ambers' keeper Matt Shering hardly had a shot to save.

Two minutes into the second-half Adam Caddy flicked a header onto the foot of the post but Andy Loudon's side had few alarms and Lyme remain rooted in the relegation zone.

Top performer for Netherbury, who ended a run of three successive defeats, was ex-Lyme favourite Pete

Lawrence who put in a typically industrious midfield performance. Centre-back Wallace Blackmore was the pick of the Seasiders.

Good news for Lyme came in the shape of 3-2 home defeats for both Norton Athletic (v Forton Rangers) and Ilminster Town Colts (v Perry Street Reserves).

At the top of the table Sam Dibling's 14th goal of the season couldn't save Millwey Rise from a 5-1 thumping at Winsham United who maintained their 100 percent record. Rise manager Shane Featherstone felt the score line flattered the hosts and maintained that Crewkerne Town look to be their toughest opponents.

DIVISION TWO

PROMOTION-Chasing Hinton and Shepton Beauchamp battled it out for the season's second goal less draw. This was unbeaten Shepton's fifth draw in eight games- a fact which could ultimately scupper their hopes for Division One football at Brimgrove Lane next season.

Dowlsh & Donyatt capitalised by leaping up to second in the table after thrashing South Petherton Reserves 5-0.

Down at the foot of the table Chard Rangers leapfrogged over Forton Rangers Reserves after an end-to-end 5-4 win. Despite the win both sides look to be nailed-on for the drop.

DIVISION THREE

Crewkerne Reserves 3
Lyme Regis Bantams 1
LYME Regis Bantams' worries continued as they slipped to their fifth straight defeat.

The Seasiders third-string put in a useful first 45 and were still in the game at 1-0 down.

But the wheels fell off after the restart when a switch from a 4-5-1 formation to 4-4-2 backfired and the Tigers cashed-in with Adam Swinnerton smashing home a superb long range effort.

A third goal followed soon after before Lyme substitute Ben Lenanton went on a surging run from the halfway line before coolly slotting home a consolation for his first goal in Seasiders' colours.

DIVISION FOUR

Hawkchurch Res 3 Waytown Hounds 3
LOWLY Hawkchurch put a dent in Waytown Hounds' promotion ambitions with a gutsy 3-3 draw.

Things looked good for Waytown when top scorer Matt Read bagged his 10th goal of the season on the half-hour. The efforts of Hawks' gloveman Dave Carter kept the Hounds at bay for the rest of the half.

The second period began with the hosts leveling through a Mark Herrod penalty after Ben McCafferey had been pushed.

An upset then looked on the cards as Simon Herrod edged Hawkchurch ahead for the first time. The visitors responded well and Mike Whitbread drilled home a 20-yarder for the goal of the game.

Jack Larcombe restored the Hawks' slender advantage but the spoils were shared when Tom Rutland bagged a second equaliser three minutes from time.

After the game Waytown manager Mark Hughes was left ruing hatful of missed opportunities but still picked out centre-back Gary Mansfield and midfielder Ed Stephenson as his star men.

Greens' boss Greg Harding selected Carter and Simon Herrod as his Men-of-the-Match.

Beaminster hit for six!

Salisbury 2nd 6 Beaminster

BEAMINSTER Ladies' Hockey Club's New Year started with a bump as they were well beaten by undefeated league leaders Salisbury 2nd's.

Despite starting brightly with some good passing and attacks, Salisbury were too strong and forced several short corners before taking the lead with a hard hit shot.

Beaminster hit back but the hosts defence held firm. Salisbury doubled their lead with a fortuitous tap from close range which once again put them in the ascendancy.

They continued their dominance in the second-half and despite Beaminster working overtime with some sterling defending, Salisbury added four more for a decisive win.

Harriet Hughes and Becky Craddock shared the player-of-the match nomination for their passing and determination.

◆ Team: Andrews, White, Brown, Pearson, Craddock, Early, Davies, Drewery, Donovan, Aplin, Hughes, Crawford.

A chance to sail the tall ship Pelican

YOUNG people who are interested in sailing Dorset's Tall Ship Pelican as part of the Youth Adventure Voyages this year are invited to attend an open weekend in February.

The Pelican's programme in 2011 offers voyages along the English Channel and south coast of England, the western isles of Scotland and the Caribbean, ending the year with a Trans-Atlantic sailing adventure voyage.

The open days will be held on Saturday, February 12th and Sunday 13th on board the Pelican in Weymouth Harbour and is open to young trainees between the age of 15 and 25 years old.

Sponsorship forms are available for fundraising. Information regarding bursaries can be found on the website. www.adventureundersail.com

The Pelican, which is dedicated to youth development is supported by a number of charities and private donors and currently is sponsored by Adventure Under Sail.

The tall ship Pelican is a square rigged sailing ship which sails thousands of miles each year with its crew of young people and the young at heart offering challenging voyages for people of all ages from 15 to 80.

The permanent crew are always on hand to guide trainees, therefore no previous sailing experience is necessary for prospective crew - just energy and enthusiasm.

Confidence is currently high on board the Tall Ship Pelican, with a new management team taking the helm for the 2011 season.

Former Naval Commander Graham Neilson, who inspired the Pelican project and rebuilt the ship at Portland, has decided to step aside and hand over management to the new team led by Darren Naggs who has joined as Operations Director.

Mr Naggs has a distinguished history in sail training, and has been master of a number of ships such as the Stavros Niarchos and Prince William.

Richard Gilmore one of the managing partners has stepped in as chief executive, bringing with him the experience of managing and growing many businesses in the service sector. The team also has the support of Ben Swain, Director of Training, Education and Marketing.

Mr Naggs who takes over as Captain said: "Without Graham's imagination, belief and sheer drive, Pelican would never have got to the current position, and we intend to keep up his good work for the youth of today. We are delighted he is staying on in a non executive role as our adviser."

The Pelican was originally built in 1946 in France, and the restoration of the TS Pelican was completed in 2007 in Portland harbour.

For more information please view www.adventureundersail.com or call Rose Robson on Tel: 01305 839476.

Improving Bees beat strugglers

STURMINSTER NEWTON 1 BRIDPORT RESERVES 3

BRIDPORT Reserves gave a much improved performance on Saturday to beat bottom side Sturminster Newton after the thrashing they received from Portland United on Bank Holiday Monday.

Joint managers Steve Crabb and Mark Lock were pleased with their side's attitude after they had a heart to heart with the players before the match.

Crabb said: "Only a couple of the players came out of the Portland game with any credit, and the lads knew it. We told them they owed us a performance, and they went out and gave us one. It was as different as 'chalk and cheese'.

Gino Scovell who had a couple of half chances earlier, gave the Bees the lead midway through the first-half, rounding the keeper after having been put through by Dom McAllister.

Richard Pincombe added a super second ten minutes later when he headed home Scovell's cross after good work with Chris Herbst, before Ben Clarke converted his brother's Ashley's header from a corner that had been saved by the keeper.

Bridport were now well in command but were then the victim of a dubious penalty given for handball, but Lee Cleal diving to his right brought off a great save.

Stur came out after the break and put the Bridport defence under some pressure and pulled one back on the hour, and the Bees were then grateful to McAllister who produced a brilliant saving tackle and clearance to prevent the hosts grabbing another.

Bridport got back in the groove after this and dominated the rest of the match, creating several chances without converting any.

"Stur deservedly pulled one back, and if Dom (McAllister) hadn't prevented a second, it might have been a different story, but we then got our game back and won comfortably."

Crabb was pleased with Scovell's performance. He's done well since he stepped up and I am really pleased with his attitude and performance"

He also felt that Lee Cleal and Gary Bulman's gave fine performances.

BRIDPORT THIRDS 8 PORTESHAM UNITED 0

BRIDPORT Thirds got back to winning ways with a comprehensive thrashing of bottom club Portesham United.

After a bright start to the season where the Bees won five of their first six matches, they had gone off the boil with four draws and a loss in their next five. However a good performance against the Possums has manager Jason Forbes prising his side.

"We played very well after a slow start and once we scored, we settled and found our confidence, and didn't take our foot off the pedal despite being five up at the break, which was very pleasing."

The return of the experienced Jamie Fry at the back was a boost for the Bees as was the appearance of Will Boyer, back from university for one game over the New Year.

Chris Gale settled the nerves with a scrappy goal, followed by a similar one from Chris Symes. Ali Boyer then scored the goal of the game which involved a string of passes before Boyer cut in past a couple of defenders before dinking the ball over the advancing keeper.

Colin Paull then took advantage of a defensive error before adding his second before the break.

Following Forbes' instructions to the tee, Bridport continued to dominate after the break and Ali Boyer added his second before Portesham had a player red carded for violent conduct on the hour.

'Let's be Avenue' initiative extended

DORCHESTER Town Football Club have announced that the 'Let's Be Avenue' initiative, where people aged 16 and under and Thomas Hardy school sixth form students can watch home league games for free, has been extended until the end of the season.

Chairman Shaun Hearn said: "Although because of the recent weather only two league fixtures have been played since the free entry was introduced, we have been pleased with the response so far and therefore have decided to continue the initiative until the end of the season.

"It has been great to see a number of new faces at games recently, especially the younger fans who are the future of the football club.

As I have said previously, we already offer the lowest adult ticket prices in the league and with youngsters now able to get in for free we hope that this will make attending home games even more affordable for families.

"Given the number of rearranged games coming up over the next couple of months due to recent postponements, the free entry will also help those youngsters who may not have been able to afford to attend a number of games in such a short period of time."

Free entry will not apply to any cup games while sixth form students must produce a valid Thomas Hardy school ID card at the turnstiles to be eligible.

Tragedy hits Buckler yard with loss of Ellie Wiggins

Cut for Coombe

THE Bob Buckler yard suffered a blow at Towcester on Monday when Ellie Wiggins, running her first hurdle race suffered some kind of seizure and died whilst racing.

The five-year-old is believed to have suffered a heart attack or an aneurism that caused her to crash through the rails and deposit jockey Nathan Sweeney on his backside.

"We are unsure exactly what happened at the moment, but she was brain dead when she careered off the track. Nathan was very fortunate and had the presence of mind to jump off her before she collapsed and escaped with just a sore bottom from bumping along the grass.

"It is unusual for a horse to die in this way particularly as she had three bumper races already and there had been no suggestion of a problem, which indicates maybe it was an aneurism. She was a very nice young horse who may have gone on to better things, and it is obviously very sad" said Buckler.

Despite his spill, Sweeney was in action 30 minutes later to pilot Ballyegan to second place in the Ladbrokes Mobile Masters Handicap Chase. Made 7/2 favourite following his excellent second at Taunton on New Years Eve, the six-year-old just failed to catch Flying Squad despite closing on him in the run-in.

Earlier he had finished third on Power Lord in the Ladbrokes Roulette Novices'

Hurdle over three miles. The 66/1 shot, running only his second race in his career, ran on strongly to move into third spot at the last.

Tiger Breeze ran well in a Happy New Year Claiming Hurdle at Taunton, also on Monday to finish mid-division. Whilst not really in contention in a race that included some highly rated horses and in fairly soft conditions, he now has a handicap which allows Buckler to place him in more suitable races and is looking for a low grade novice or selling handicap race for him next.

Cullahill finished strongly after being in contention for most of the way in the Oxygen Creative Design And Web Development Novices Limited Handicap Chase but having been edged out of the top three places jockey Nick Skelton appeared to stand up in the stirrups as if some problem, but then rallied after the final fence to close on but not catch fourth placed Earth Planet by half a length.

Buckler said: "Nick said he felt he was being squeezed and just stood back to make sure the horse didn't fall, but then he came again well, and but for that jumped well after his fall at Plumpton."

Mizzurka put in a disappointing jumping display after her fine second place at Taunton the week before where she appeared to have the race won until being spooked by the woodchip crossing

At this stage Forbes brought on Sam Bevis and Reece Bulman, and the former made an immediate impact by providing crosses for both Poole, to complete his hat-trick, and Will Boyer to score with headers to complete the scoring.

In addition to Fry, Forbes picked out Martin Bulman for special praise for his hard work in midfield.

Bridport Thirds have been docked three points and ordered to replay two matches for playing an ineligible player.

Sam Pearce who played against Portesham (1-0 win) and Sturminster Marshall Reserves (2-2) in October had already signed and played for another team this season before signing for the Bees, but didn't advise the club.

BRIDPORT U14 6 WAREHAM RANGERS 3

AFTER a lengthy time off due to weather and cancellations Bridport were back with a bang.

After only five minutes they were sent on there way with a neatly converted finish by Cameron Fowler. Soon after Wareham rattled the hosts' bar but after 15 minutes Bridport Jonah Ayunga put Bridport 2-0 up.

Midway through the first-half Cauley Cox added to the tally before Ayunga struck twice more before the interval to complete a fine hat-trick.

Wareham hit back in the opening minutes after the restart to reduce the arrears to 5-1. Only for the hosts to extend their lead midway through the half with Cox's second of the afternoon. With Bridport down to 10 men due to two injuries Wareham bagged two late goals to make the final score 6-3.

PARKSTONE U13 3 BRIDPORT 2

BRIDPORT enjoyed almost total control in the first half and led by more than just goals from Owen Ward and Liam Sayers at the interval.

They were made to pay for it in the second half as it seemed a combination of blinding sunlight and the players running out of steam a little contributed to a horrible 12 minute spell where the home team scored 3 times.

Two late chances for Sayers and a long range effort from Rhys Hayter was as good as it got for Bridport in the second-half.

◆ DORCHESTER Town have given seven days notice of approach for Bridport goalkeeper Sam Filkins.

It is not known why they have needed to do this as the 17-year-old has signed dual registration forms for both clubs this season, and in fact sat on the bench at Weston-super-Mare on New Year's Day in place of Simon Evans who was away in the USA on holiday.

Rumour has it that Evans may well be on his way, and Filkins will be required as cover for Regan Coward.

leading to the paddock 150m from the line.

The outsider in the listed Class 1 32red.com Mares' Hurdle over 2 ½ miles at Sandown Park, she made a mistake early on and lost her confidence and eventually finished fifth.

Buckler said: "We wanted her to have the experience of a listed race and expected her to finish at the back, but she didn't do herself justice with her jumping."

"Having made a mistake early on she lost her confidence and put in a number of short strides which affected her jumping and meant she lost her rhythm and about a length every hurdle, and in the heavy ground it was quite sapping."

Double Dizzy finished a creditable fourth at Wincanton in the Higos Insurance Services Handicap Chase over two miles five furlongs. Jumping well and with the leaders most of the way, he lost touch with the leading three as they turned for home but stayed on with Nathan Sweeney atop to claim fourth spot comfortably.

"He ran a nice race, but is hard work," said Buckler.

Quix failed to confirm the promise of his third place in his debut at Lingfield last month by finishing eighth in the bumper at Southwell. The race was won easily by the odds-on favourite Knight Pass who is considered to be a Cheltenham horse, Quix ran too freely early on to lead the field.

Buckler said: "The ground was too sticky for him as well really, particularly in the turn for home where the field swallowed him up a bit, but he stayed on and only finished 3 ¼ lengths down on fourth place. It was also a high quality race for Southwell as shown in the betting with our horse at 33/1 despite a good run first time out."

Fun Guy was found to have a breathing problem after finishing in midfield in his third hurdle race on the same card at Southwell. The horse who has already had a throat operation has been checked over, and it appears that everything is in place as it should be, and that he needs to run on firm ground.

"We need to be more selective about the ground he runs on. The heavier conditions only exacerbate his situation," said Buckler.

Despite Buckler's lack of winners just now on the racecourse, he had success recently on the point-to-point circuit when Different Trades won the Harkaway Club Members Intermediate race at Chaddesley Corbett, near Bromsgrove.

The seven-year-old, owned by Buckler and ridden by Jack Barber, went off at 5/2 and beat the 9/4 favourite Commander Kev by three lengths with 14/1 shot Lord Brunello a further 12 lengths away in third in the 12 horse field.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

Excellent win double for Weymouth

WHAT with the inclement weather and the break for Christmas and the New Year I encountered a little difficulty in remembering just whom I should be covering when the league action resumed on Saturday.

Finally realising that it was ages since I had watched Dorchester, I trotted over the hill to take in their game against Marlborough in the Southern Counties League (South).

DORCHESTER 38pts MARLBOROUGH Nil
GIVEN the recent weather the Dorchester pitch was drier than I expected for this Southern Counties League (South) encounter.

The home side kicked-off and made a start that smacked of both triumph and disaster. The visitors fumbled the drop out, Dorchester won the ensuing scrum and, after a couple of thrusts, found themselves with numbers on the narrow side, and quick hands put centre Harvey over in the corner.

Unfortunately he sustained a back injury while touching down and took no further part. The try remained unconverted and the home side achieved another success scant minutes later.

They were winning 1go forward ball from the set scrums, and from this situation, set up a position through a strong run by centre Bament. The ball was recycled close to the Marlborough line and prop Cottell got over by the posts from close range. Bament added the extras to give his side a 12-0 lead.

Apart from not winning much possession, Marlborough were dropping off the odd tackle at this stage and were made to pay as the home side scored a third try, by number eight Mitchell this time, before the game was 15 minutes old. Again Bament converted and, at 19-0 ahead, the home side were well clear.

At this juncture the referee inadvertently charged down a kick out of the Marlborough defence, to the amusement of all bar one, and required treatment.

The home side were dominant at this stage and another try came after 25 minutes, unconverted this time, when blind side flanker Gower touched down halfway out.

More was to come before the break and winger Pryce stood up his marker and touched down out wide after the ball had been moved along his threequarter line from a set scrum on the opponents' twenty two. Bament added the extras to this score to take his side out of sight at thirty one points ahead at the halfway stage.

Dorchester were well deserving of this half-time scoreline as they had been by far the better side in all departments during the first 40 minutes. I certainly expected them to stretch away in the second-half and to win by a distance, but it was not to be. They did get over the Marlborough line early in the second period, only to be brought back by their touch judge for -foot in touch', and it seemed that, with the game won and the bonus point secured, they became a little complacent during the third quarter.

They still had by far the better of things territorially speaking, but took one or two wrong options that prevented them increasing their lead. Marlborough, who had never stopped competing, got back into the game somewhat and, although they never really threatened, prospered quietly for a space.

The closest they came to opening their account was when they won a penalty in front of the home posts. They opted for the scrum however and were pushed decisively off their own ball as the home eight roused itself.

Just one try came in the second-half. Gower, the home number six, found himself in space in a broken field situation on half way. He picked up his knees, made good ground and, when challenged, his offload found Mitchell on the twenty two. The number eight held off a tackler and had the pace to get over, just. Bament duly goaled the try to complete the scoring in what was rather a strange game.

Dorchester certainly deserved to win this one, and deserved their bonus point also, for they were by far the better side. I was left wondering however just why their effort tailed off during the second period. As for Marlborough, although they were rather lightweight all round and 'not the bones' as my old granny would have said, they kept competing and trying to play. I was left thinking that they might be the side that avoids the drop at the season's end.

Both the Dorchester second and third sides came second after competitive outings. The seconds lost 21-3 at East Dorset while the thirds went down 36-20 against visitors Blandford seconds.

WARMINSTER Nil WEYMOUTH 12pts

WARMINSTER are known to be one of the more difficult sides to beat in the division, especially on their own pad-dock. Weymouth managed to do just that on Saturday last, although they were made to work hard for the win, and had to wait until the final minute before it was a certainty.

They seemingly had the better of matters early on and, in fact had several opportunities to open their account in the first half. They could not do so and their frustrations grew as Peplow saw two of his penalty kicks rebound from the woodwork.

The first period did, in the event, remain scoreless; and the second seemed to be heading the same way, with the Warminster scavengers continuing to make things difficult for their opponents. With just five minutes remaining however Weymouth launched a threequarter attack, breached the home defensive line, and winger Will Quick scuttled over from all of 40 yards to touch down.

The try remained unconverted and matters therefore, still remained unresolved but, almost directly from the restart, Weymouth managed to turn over possession and influential number eight, Julian Quick, found himself in the clear on halfway. He backed his pace and outstripped the cover to run in from 50 yards. Peplow added the extras with what was the final kick of the game and Weymouth had made their way to a deserved, although hard fought win.

WEYMOUTH 2nd 27pts NORTH DORSET 4th Nil

THE Weymouth second side went one better than their first team when they notched this bonus point win in division three, with tries coming from Les Moon, Liam Berry, Gary Geldard and Andy Bowditch. Skipper Nathan Allen also crossed the whitewash, and kicked a conversion for good measure to complete the scoring.

BRIDPORT 12pts SHERBORNE 5pts

MAKE no mistake, this was, to my mind anyway, the shock result of the day.

The visitors had edged to a win over Dorchester last time out and would have come to the Brewery Field with some confidence. In addition to which the home side lost lock Tom Woodhouse with a rib injury within the first couple of minutes.

They regrouped however and, although the first half hour remained scoreless, Bridport would have felt that they had shaded it quality wise. In fact both their scores came during the final five minutes of the half.

A Sherborne defensive kick failed to find touch and was run back positively by the home number seven. He made the ball available when checked and winger Ryan de la Hunte was put over in the corner. Croft added the extras with a good place kick and his side now led 7-0.

More was to come for Bridport kicked the restart kick back, stole the ensuing lineout, and good work by the backs put Croft over. His conversion kick rebounded from a post but Bridport would have certainly felt satisfied with their 12 point half-time lead.

The Sherborne open side had seen red after half an hour's play for making an illegal spear tackle but, nevertheless, his side put the home side under considerable pressure throughout the third quarter, and were rewarded with an unconverted try on the hour.

The home defence copied however and the final twenty minutes was a more even affair, with both sides having chances to alter the score line. Neither could do so, and Bridport held on for the win that they will value and one that may well shape their whole season.

Not such good news for the Bridport second side who went down 46-12 at North Dorset thirds and remain at the bottom of the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (South) without a win against their name.

PREVIEW

DORCHESTER take the road to TROWBRIDGE on Saturday and will, I think, travel with some confidence. They bested these opponents by a couple of scores last October, at a time when Trowbridge were in the division's top flight.

Their opponents have fallen away a little since then however and, if Dorchester can field their strongest fifteen, I think that they can win again. It will be close however.

BRIDPORT flushed with success as they will be, have something of a mountain to climb for they entertain CORSHAM who walloped them soundly earlier in the season and who lie in the division's runners-up spot. I do seem to remember however that last Saturday's opponents also bested them soundly, earlier in the piece, and a win therefore is not out of the question. I cannot see it happening though.

WEYMOUTH too have a home fixture and entertain SWAN-AGE & WAREHAM 2nd, a side whom they beat after a low scoring, rather attritional encounter earlier in the season. They should be able to make home advantage count, and can win comfortably if they take their scoring opportunities, something that they have failed to do on occasion recently.

As to the second sides, Bridport will most certainly have their hands full when they visit Wheatsheaf Cabin Crew as will Dorchester seconds when they entertain Ellingham & Ringwood.

Dorchester thirds may find the going easier at Bournemouth fourths, but probably the easiest task is the one facing Weymouth seconds. They beat Swanage & Wareham fourths by a distance earlier in the season and should win comfortably again. They may find the going tougher away from home however.

PUDDLETOWN 23 FORDINGBRIDGE 2nd XV 8

A CONVINCING performance in this Dorset & Wilts Division 2 South clash, particularly in the second-half, saw the Villagers score three well worked tries to secure a much needed third victory of the season and in doing so complete the double over fellow strugglers Fordingbridge writes Geoff Purver.

Initially though it was the visitors who were quicker to settle and, competing strongly, they penned Puddletown inside their own twenty-two for much of the first quarter. Inevitably this early pressure told and Fordingbridge were first on the board with a successful penalty kick.

But the Villagers' pack was beginning to find its rhythm and started to gain the upper hand both in the loose and in the set scrums, giving young scrum-half Max Welch more and more options to set up attacking moves.

However, despite creating a number of good chances for the rest of the first period, the home side failed to make the breakthrough and instead it was the visitors who went further ahead right on half-time with an unconverted try in the corner following an excellent blind side move.

A few words of encouragement from coaching coordinator Toby Musgrove, playing at fly-half, ensured that Puddletown kept up the pressure straight from the restart, and it took only five minutes for them to score. Patient build-up play saw the forwards take the ball deep into the visitors' territory, their defence strayed offside, and centre Dan Udell, taking a quick tap penalty, powered through four or five tackles to cross the whitewash.

Musgrove's conversion attempt fell short but the increasingly confident home side were soon back on the attack and minutes later the forwards once again set up the platform for the ball to be passed at speed along the line for full-back Marcus House to run in a fine try and give the hosts the lead.

Udell, having taken over the kicking duties, not only added the conversion, but then minutes later, as the Villagers continued to dominate, put over two successful penalties in quick succession to increase the gap to 10 points.

Connal Newbery came on for James Talbot and the teenage flanker was soon in the thick of the action, diving over for what looked to be a try only for the unsighted referee to disappoint by having to give the visitors the benefit of the doubt.

But with just minutes left Puddletown sealed their victory with a carbon copy of their second try, the ball once again being shifted all the way through the backs to House whose unselfish final pass put replacement winger Chris Thomson in for his first ever senior score.

Udell missed the conversion attempt, but the Villagers supporters were already celebrating a welcome result as the final whistle went.

Four way title race

AT the halfway point of the Weymouth & District League season four clubs still harbour realistic first division title ambitions but it is Colliton A that lead the way going into 2011's fixtures courtesy of a fine 22-16 triumph over All Saints A at County Hall – a result that all but ends the Wyke outfit's challenge this time around.

Paul Carter was at his imperious best for the visitors as he racked up a full nine sets that included a magnificent five-sets victory over Colliton number one Ray Harwood (8) who had fought back from two sets down before succumbing 11-9 in the decider.

Sadly though for Carter, cohorts Tony Babb (3) and Steve Rook (3) were found wanting on the night as the pair suffered defeat to both county veteran Miranda Edwardes (6) and Terry Whitworth (5).

Babb had stormed back from losing the opening set 11-4 to Whitworth by grabbing the next two but it was the much-improved Whitworth, who plays the tight ball to maximum effect, who then fought back to win in five.

Going into the doubles the hosts led 19-15 but they rounded off a fine night at the table with a decent 3-1 final rubber success to forge 18 points clear at the top of the table.

Second-placed Springfield A and YMCA in fourth kept their push for honours alive as they both got the measure of Wyke A (formerly Civil Service A) by identical 27-15 winning margins.

For the former it was Jon Bissett's nine-set winning performance that proved the difference in the sides with the pick of his wins coming in the opening rubber – a nerve-jangling five-sets triumph over the vastly improved Sai Magenti who had led 2-1.

As for Y.M. they were fortunate to see John Cox return to his best in the 13 sets it took to get the better of Magenti (in five games), Neil Richards (4) and Steve White (2) as he edged his way to a maximum.

However he was well supported by sidekick Ken Brake whose nine-sets took even longer to earn as he had to fend off both Magenti and Richards over the distance after taking White in four games.

In the second tier one side that could trouble the Shipton Gorge teams in the race for the title over the second half of the season are Preston A who do hold a game in hand on the other serious challengers.

However their prospects took a big hit as they fell to a 21-17 reverse against the experienced promotion hopefuls Pilgrims despite Mike Page hitting top gear on the night to record nine sets.

Page's best work came in game 8 where he had to endure a stunning fight back from John Hunnisett (8) who had squared the match at 2-2 from two down before Page rallied to storm the decider to five.

Dorchester U16 41
Swanage & Wareham 10

THE first ten minutes of this match were evenly contested although the home side had the possession and territory.

A Swans line-out 20 yards from their line was stolen by the leaping Ben Lashmar who then forced his way over for the opening score, which was converted. Swans battled but lacked any cutting edge in the backs.

A Dorchester attack then resulted in an overlap and Will Holmes put Henry Dale away and over in the corner. The game was being keenly contested at the break-down and turnover ball became a feature for both sides, however there was only one side going to make the next score and when home full back Kieran Fry caught a kick, he managed somehow to evade five or six tackles before touching down.

Swans then had their best period of the game and camped out in Dorchesters 22, with pressure being exerted a handling error by Dorchester and quick thinking saw the visitors get a deserved score to leave the half-time score at 17-5.

The second-half saw Dorchester continue where they had left off the first, constantly driving the visitors off the ball.

Fly-half Alex Hallett was growing in confidence and put in more than his shares of tackles. Next over the line was Hugh Vivian from the base of a five metre scrum, this was followed by Harry Smith who wriggled over for the next try, before Vivian added his second.

The restart by Swans didn't go 10 metres, Will Holmes was alert to this caught the ball off a kind bounce and sprinted from half way and under the posts.

Two conversions completed the scoring for the home side. However Swanage weren't to be denied a late score a series of pick and drives saw them get over the line for their second and final try.

RELEGATION FEARS GROW

LYME Regis' home match with Ilminster Town Reserves fell foul of the Friday deluge and was postponed on Saturday morning.

This allowed the Reserves to include amongst others Adam Caddy, Luke Clifton and Malc Darby for the their trip to Netherbury.

But the bolstered line-up still went down 2-0 at the Division One promotion-chasers.

Lyme created plenty of chances but ultimately a toothless front line failed to find the net for the second game in succession for the first time in three years.

The result leaves the Resses still in the drop zone.

Lyme Regis Bantams are also in trouble. A superb solo goal from substitute Ben Lenanton was the highlight of a 3-1 defeat at Crewkerne Town Reserves.

The Seaside's, currently one place above the drop zone, trailed 1-0 at the break but a change in formation back fired and the Tigers cruised home.

This coming weekend Lyme first team, currently lying fourth, are due to entertain Merriott Rovers in a Premier Division top-of-the-table clash at the Davey Fort.

The Seaside's have won their last six encounters with the South Somerset side who at present occupy the runners-up position.

The Reserves have no game whilst the Bantams entertain Farway United Reserves at Venlake.

Uplyme's crucial Division Two visit by Beaminster Reserves was another game that was washed-out.

Manager Rob Coombe and his squad are due to visit South Petherton Reserves on Saturday.

If results elsewhere go their way a win could see the Swallows back up to fourth in the race for a place in Division One next season.

One team almost certainly heading in the other direction is Charmouth.

After a week off, the Robins, firmly rooted at the foot of Division One, are due to return to action with the visit of fellow strugglers Norton Athletic.

With the club in the process of rebuilding their squad, a first win in 15 months would be a massive morale-booster for manager Nick Pomeroy and his squad.

■ REMEMBERING DAVE: Thirty four players from the Lyme Regis Darts League (sponsored by Class One Driver Hire) contested the Dave Smith Memorial Darts Cup at the Nags Head on Thursday. Winner for the second time was Terry Prowse who defeated Matt Brotherton in the Final. The evening raised £350 which this year will be donated to the Lyme Regis Club For Young People. Organisers would like to thank Rob and Debbie Hamon from the Nags Head for staging the event.
